Gately Stadium is located on the South Side of Chicago. It has rich history hosting High School football games for some of the most prominent teams in the city. Aside from High School football, Gately has been home to a diverse range of sports and was notably part of the venue for the 1959 Pan Am Games.

Waechter Architects was the Architect of Record for the total renovation which began in June of 2011. The renovation includes a new sports field, press box, coaches box, grandstand renovation, building restoration, accessible toilet facility and ADA grandstand seating.

Completed 11/2011
Project Budget: $2.6 million
